Dear Dave,

Thanks for the addendum.

You are quite right in pointing out the change in what Oliver Stone has been saying about his movie.

I think this started as soon as he knew what the Lardner article would say. He did, apparently, know before it was published.

But in truth he has never really abandondoned his claim to be putting real history on film.

The last thing I've seen in print is the LATimes sycophancy.

Thanks and best to all,

Harold
